AS I ENTER THROUGH THE BUSPORT LOBBY, I SUDDENLY FEEL, MUCH TO MY SURPRISE, VERY HAPPY... IT IS GOOD TO BE BACK. IT WAS A GOOD SUMMER, A SUMMER OF BEACHING ALL DAY AND WORKING ALL NIGHT; A SUMMER OF CRACKERJACKS AND FENWAY PARK AND HARVARD SQUARE... STILL IT IS GOOD TO BE HERE AGAIN. FOR HERE ARE MY FRIENDS... MY TRUE FRIENDS. SURE I MET MANY INTERESTING PEOPLE THIS SUMMER WHOM I CALLED MY FRIENDS. BUT WHAT KIND OF FRIENDS? TEMPORARY, I'M AFRAID. HERE ARE THE PEOPLE I STUDY WITH AND WORK WITH, EAT WITH AND LAUGH WITH; HERE ARE THE PEOPLE I SHARE MY THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS WITH. YES, HERE ARE MY TRUE FRIENDS.

SENIOR YEAR OFFICERS: Regina Renzi, Secretary; Kathleen Fernandez, President; Elizabeth Clarke, Vice President; Mark Webster, Treasurer.

Remember three years ago when we came to Barnstable High School? We were scared and inexperienced, yet we went ahead bravely. Mr. Blazis was elected class advisor and our officers were: Peter Auger, President; Peter Nelson, Vice President; Kathy Fernandez, Secretary and Judith Cressy, Treasurer. We held the "Turkey Trot" with a live turkey as the guest of honor. We collected dues and contributed to the Vietnam project and that concluded our activities for our freshman year. The next year went pretty much the same way. We voted Peter Auger as President, Elizabeth Clarke as Vice President, Regina Renzi as Secretary and Judith Cressy as Treasurer. Our "Holiday Hop" was a great success and we will never forget the visit made by Santa Claus!

We couldn't wait until we became sophisticated Juniors, but the wait was worth it! What a fantastic year! The year officially opened when we received our class rings. Officers were: Kathy Fernandez, President; Elizabeth Clarke, Vice President; Regina Renzi, Secretary and Mark Webster, Treasurer. Our candy sale was held in the fall. This was a success, so we moved on to planning our Junior Prom. For the first time in B.H.S. history, our prom was held outside of the school. The "Blue-Green Splendor" was held at the Wychmere Harbor Club in Harwichport. All who went have fond memories of that evening. Now we were SENIORS! It was great being on top. This year we voted Kathy Fernandez, President; Elizabeth Clarke, Vice President; Regina Renzi, Secretary and Mark Webster, Treasurer. Our magazine sale was the start of a good year. At the time of this writing, we've got our senior prom, senior banquet, picnic and graduation ahead of us. But when we think of our last year, we think of everyone who has helped us and of all the friends we're leaving at Barnstable High. A great deal of the success of our four year endeavors was due to the devoted interest of our class advisor, Mr. Gary Blazis. It all went too fast.

Cape Cod's Miss United Fund Susan Buckler

Susan Buckler reigned over the annual United Fund drive on Cape Cod after being selected from the ten semi-finalists in the Rotary Club's Indian Summer Princess contest held in August.

Miss United Fund's duties entailed public appearances, banquet speeches, several trips to Otis Air Force Base and recording of advertisement tapes for WCOD. Sue was involved in a few publicity stunts to promote donations, as well as having the privilege of accepting contributions from many prominent people.

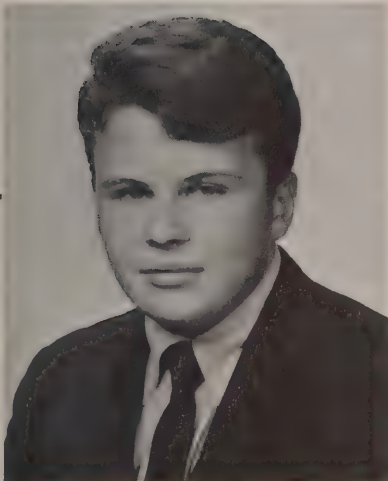

The United Fund drive ended officially in November, but for many this was only a beginning. For Susan Buckler, it was a rewarding experience and one that she will long remember.

The Barnstable High School girls' hockey team wrested the championship of the Capeway Conference from defending champions, Dartmouth, and in doing so, completed an undefeated season with 8 league victories and one non-league win over Old Rochester. This made a total of nine victories without a defeat. The Raiderettes allowed a total of 5 goals, while scoring 36 over the season. Leading the team were left inner Carol Hurley with 12 goals and Debbie Monteiro, center forward, with 10 goals. Seven seniors will be lost this year, but Coach Nehubian has a deep defensive unit all set to start next fall. Seniors on the team were Karen Young, Liz Clarke, Jan Powers, Joan Curtis, Jane Hurley, Joan Cross, Susan Scudder, Gail Olander and Cindy Ames.

Leg work is required of Capeway Conference Champions . . .

Red Raiders of 1968

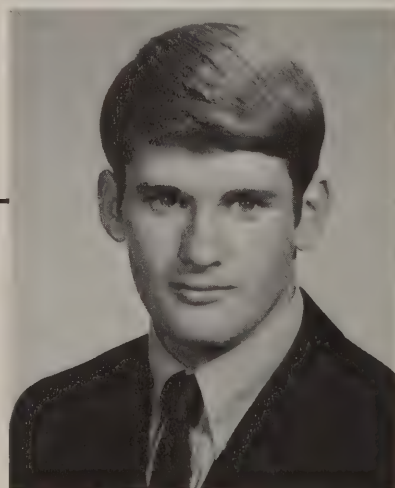

Preparations were underway for the start of the 1968 season long before the close of the previous academic year. When the 1967 season ended, Coaches Daubney, Hicks, and LeBlanc managed an intensive work program to insure strength for the 1968 team. Strict training rules were observed during the summer and an exercise and weight-lifting program was set up. The coaches kept close tabs on each squad member and impressed us all with their confidence. Our goal was to be the best team of the past decade. The contributions of the football team have always been a matter of pride to our class. There were fifteen returning seniors, some of whom were 1967 starters. These veterans made up the greater part of one of the best teams ever fielded here at Barnstable.

Party hats? Bobby socks? What's going on? Thanks to the kind-hearted seniors of the Code Club, several red-faced members underwent the usual fall ordeal of initiation. After the hilarity of initiation, the girls began practicing the club motto, "Service Above Self".

Besides selling tickets at football and basketball games and serving punch at soccer games, these girls held a job auction. They worked for teachers doing anything from shining shoes to washing floors and raking leaves. The money earned went toward the scholarship fund. Operation Kindness was another major project. The year ends with election of next year's members and a "good-bye" cookout for the senior members. Code Club girls realize that they must sacrifice their time to help others, but it was worth it.

MASS. GIRLS' STATE

Elizabeth Clarke

"Lean to the left! Lean to the right!"

"Stand up! Sit down! Fight ... fight ... FIGHT!"

In the face of victory or defeat, Barnstable's ten cheerleaders constantly support, encourage and instill fervor into our athletic teams. Working and practicing from the first week of school until the end of the basketball season, these girls are only rewarded by the success of our squads. Two cheerleaders tournaments were held in March. Grateful appreciation must be extended to Mrs. Thomas Daubney, for all the time and guidance which she has given to the girls.

Hyannis—"The two A's, Andrade and Auger, had been touted as the ones to watch in . . . football game between Barnstable and Falmouth, but it was a tiny little flea named Archer who upset the applecart and astounded the more than 6,000 enthusiastic fans at Leo Shields Memorial Field.

Fleas are little but they bite big and this one won't have to eat for a week after the feast he had on Falmouth plus that ever-so-sweet turkey dinner that followed. Curt "The Flea" Archer stood Falmouth right on it ears in the first minute-and-a-half of the game with a series of astounding feats from one so small and unheralded.

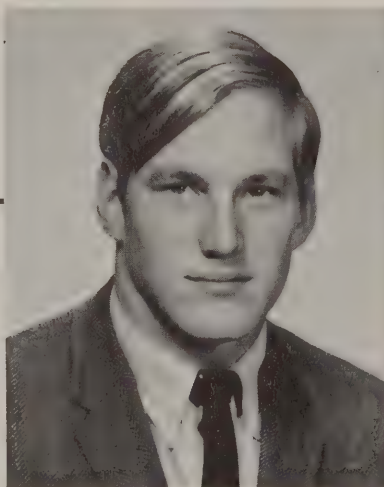

Archer led his Red Raider teammates to a 40-26 victory over Falmouth, the first Turkey Day win Barnstable has enjoyed in six years, and the first win Coach Tom Daubney has gained over Falmouth in his three years at the helm. Barnstable thus ended the season with a 6-2-1 slate while Falmouth finished at 5-3-0."

Ed Sullivan, Cape Cod Standard Times

Barnstable Tops Falmouth 40-26

From The Sidelines: "Andrade hit Semprini once with a block that must have been heard in Yarmouth . . . He also leaned into Kevin Friel while returning a kickoff with a resounding crash . . . Friel evened the knock though when he caught Andrade high and threw him out of bounds . . . Tom Wannie tossed Andrade for a six-yard loss with a beauty of a rush . . . Daubney credited the Senior leadership and the efforts of several who have been coming through all year . . . and praise must be given to the cheerleaders, bands, drill teams of both schools and to Nick Fortes who sang the National Anthem."

1969 Junior Miss Pageant

For the third time, the Massachusetts Junior Miss Pageant was held at Barnstable High School, on Feb. 1st. A capacity audience of 800 filled the auditorium. Comedian Charlie Dorman presided as Master of Ceremonies. Although Elizabeth Clarke lost the Miss Massachusetts crown, she was named the second runner-up. Robin Zimmerman, last year's spectacular Miss Massachusetts returned to crown the new queen, Miss Lynn Stites of Winchester.

In past Junior Miss pageants, two Barnstable High students have represented Massachusetts, Frances Krook, Class of '66 and Robin Zimmerman, Class of '68. Barnstable students who entered the contest this year were: Nita Gonsalves, Elizabeth Clarke, Cheryl Bailey, Pat Brown, Kathy Fernandez, Sheryl Handler, Sue Buckler and Sandy Thomas. All of these girls were beautiful and capable representatives of the Class of 1969.

Our Judy reached Greece without difficulties and she has been a wonderful representative for us in the Rotary Exchange Student Program.

But Alinda didn't fare as well. She flew on a plane up to Brussels, but wired that her flight was delayed and the wire came from Holland. She got to Tenaflly where she was helped by a Rotarian. George Parmenter finally rescued her with his plane. Talk about a confused flight for a young girl!

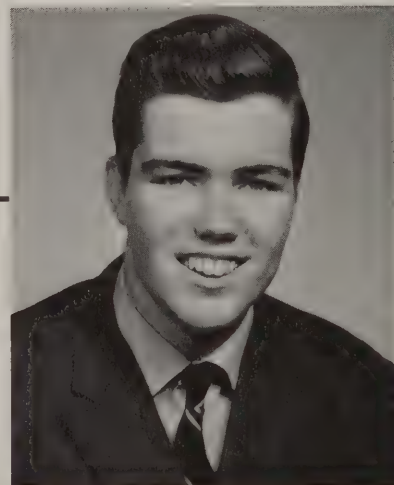

We've loved having Alexandra with us for this senior year and wish her well in her commercial career.

Dear Mrs. Mehaffey,

I've been doing much writing since my arrival. Outside of school, I've done a lot of poetry, and, of course, I've been keeping a notebook. At this point, I've pretty much decided that I want to major in journalism. I wish I could be working with Kathy and you on the Barnacle staff. Will be seeing you in June.

As always,
 Judy

For the first time, Barnstable High School art students entered the Boston Globe Interscholastic Arts Award exhibition. Barnstable students did exceptionally well. Thomas Higham was top individual awards winner in the statewide competition. His works took 4 gold keys, more than attained by any other single entry and two of these were awarded Blue Ribbons, which means they will be exhibited in the national show in New York. The following students each received a blue ribbon and a gold key; Elberta Little, Gary Scott, Marsha Savery and Charles Briggs.

Interact

Barnstable High School has several service clubs, all of which are active in service work. The Hyannis Kiwanis sponsors the Key Club, which is open to boys only, and the Hyannis Rotary sponsors the Code Club for girls only. Now, the Hyannis Rotary has helped to organize Interact, an international club, which is open to both boys and girls. The only requirement is that the members dedicate a good portion of time to community service.

Upon visiting the Leo Shields Memorial Field one Saturday afternoon, I was shocked to see that the usual football game was not in session. Instead, two teams of Barnstable beauties were attempting to play soccer. After inquiring, I was informed that I was watching the first Powder Puff soccer game ever to be played at B.H.S.

The Junior girls' supporters were thrilled by their team's aggressiveness, but it was obvious that the well-organized seniors, under the excellent coaching of Bill Packer and Will O'Donnell, had better control of the ball. The seniors had their taste of victory when they triumphed over the juniors 1-0. After many bruised knees and kicked ankles were tended to and everyone had gone home, the two teams united to congratulate one another in friendship.

Some of the girl's new dresses brought by Santa were too big and one boy's shirt hung down around his knees, but if you listened closely, you could hear the giggling, small voices saying things like, "That's okay, it will fit my sister", or, "My brother couldn't come. I'll give it to him." It was hard to tell just by looking at all the smiling faces, who enjoyed Operation Kindness more, the big kids from Barnstable or the little ones from the Jamaica Plain Settlement House. It was obvious, however, that Operation Kindness brought a real feeling of Christmas to B.H.S. that December night.

Spring is a time for skipping school, for being in love and-for about twenty girls under the coaching of Miss Nehubian—a time for softball practice. Every afternoon these hardworking girls run laps, practice throwing, hitting and catching. In spite of all the work, the girls all have a good time playing together as a team. Their dedication pays off as the team has always been quite successful.

In February of our junior year, many girls began to worry about one major event in a girl's life—a date for the JUNIOR PROM! If the girls worried, the emotion that came to the boys would be called panic. "Which special girl do I want to spend all that money on? Shall I splurge on roast beef or run the risk of greasy fingers from fried chicken? Double with Jim and Nancy or Bob and Sue?" Came April, however, most decisions had been made and while the girls relaxed at "Mr. Harry's", a few poor souls searched all over town begging florists to make up a corsage they had forgotten to order. But the prom at Wychemere Harbor Club was worth every bit of panic and trouble.

The 1969 Barnacle is different. It is a casual book of our school day memories. One decided change is the elimination of an alphabetized senior portrait section. As far as possible, each senior has been placed near the activity associated with that individual. Shakespeare said, "Ay, in the catalogue ye go for men, but the valued file distinguishes the swift, the slow, the subtle, the housekeeper, the hunter ... everyone according to the gift which bounteous nature hath in him closed ..." And that is how we remember one another ... not by letters of the alphabet, but as football fellows, artists, hockey players, musicians ... To help you locate a particular senior, we have included a directory at the end of the school section.
